

The Department of Collaborative Support and Intervention

Assistant Professor of Counseling Tenure-Track

The Counselor Education Program housed in the Department of Collaborative Support and Intervention at the University of West Georgia is seeking an individual to join our collaborative, entrepreneurial and dynamic department. This is a tenure track, ten-month appointment with the possibility of summer employment. The start date for the position is August 2011 pending availability of funding.

Qualifications

An earned doctorate in counseling or counselor education is required (ABD considered), preferably from a CACREP accredited program. The candidate must be licensed or license eligible as a professional counselor in Georgia. Counseling experience in school or community settings is preferred. Candidates must have strong identities as counselors and counselor educators as evidenced by active participation in professional counseling organizations, demonstrated commitment to and evidence of a research and publication agenda, and knowledge of and commitment to the CACREP accreditation standards and process. Preferred qualifications include teaching excellence in a broad range of graduate level counseling courses, successful counseling experience in agencies or schools, conducting meaningful research and scholarship, guiding graduate student research, serving on doctoral committees, identifying and pursuing collaborative and entrepreneurial opportunities, developing and providing instruction through on-line or alternative methods, and developing and sustaining collaborative relationships with academic and non-academic partners.

Application Process

Electronic submissions encouraged. Submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, unofficial transcripts, and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least five professional references to:
