

The Department of Leadership and Applied Instruction

Assistant Professor of Sport Management Tenure-Track

Department of Leadership and Applied Instruction seeks qualified candidates for the position of Assistant Professor of Sport Management, 10 month, tenure track position with the possibility of summer employment. Position begins August 2011 pending funding. Salary $50,000 for 10 month contract.

Required Qualifications

Earned doctorate in Sport Management or related field from an accredited institution by August 15, 2011. Candidates must have excellent verbal and written communication skills and demonstrated commitment to teaching, service, and research. Candidates must have the ability to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Sport Management in face to face and online environments, have an emerging research/publication agenda, and be willing to work some evenings and weekends. Terminal degree must be awarded prior to position starting date. Participation in department, university and community service is expected.

Preferred Qualifications

Preference will be given to candidates who demonstrate the ability to innovatively deliver contemporary classroom experiences. Preference will be given to candidates with both higher education teaching experience and a practical experience in the sport industry.

Application Process

Electronically submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, unofficial transcripts, and complete information for five references to:

Dr. Laura Hatfield, Assistant Professor & Chair Search Committee

Email: lhatfiel@westga.edu

Review of applications begins November 15, 2010, open until filled