

UWG QEP Topic Submission

QEP topics should be submitted using this form and address each question below:

1) What QEP topic are you submitting? (5-10 words)
Imaginative and Transformative Teaching and Learning
2) What is UWG currently doing in this area relative to student learning?
It is overlooked by most, practiced by some, but it is mostly sporadic and haphazard.
3) How does this topic relate to the UWG strategic plan and/or assessment data?
1. Increase student retention rates. Goal 7: The University will endeavor to increase our overall enrollment to 14,500 by the year 2015. 2. Guiding Principle 1: The University will develop and support a distinctive set of quality academic programs ranging from bachelors to doctorates that blend the best of professionalized liberal education, experiential learning, and individual transformation. 3. Guiding Principle 3: The steady enrollment growth over the next five years will be managed to enhance the University's dedication to educational excellence in a personal environment. We have many students here at UWG who suffer failure (eventually leave) due to our inability to inspire and improve their personal perceptions of learning, Students' long for a personally meaningful and fulfilling education to replace life-draining downloading and drill. Integrating imagination and transformation into

Please submit all topic ideas (no later than Oct 1, 2010), to gep@westga.edu our pedagogy can enliven both professors and students. Every professor owes their students an education that is transformative and not merely conforming.

Topic submissions will be posted to www.westga.edu/qep

Please submit all topic ideas (no later than Oct 1, 2010), to qep@westga.edu