WOLF PACT

Protecting the integrity of a degree from the Richards College of Business at the University of West Georgia is the responsibility of the administration, faculty, staff, and students of the college. Our mission is “To become a globally recognized college of business preparing forward-thinking, responsible leaders.” Responsible leaders are ethical leaders, and this behavior begins in the classroom. One of our Strategic Goals is to demonstrate “...commitment to the principles of honesty and integrity in interactions and undertakings, [and] accountability for personal behavior...”. As such, we have developed the Wolf Pact in an effort to promote and maintain the highest standards of integrity, professional behavior, ethical actions, and personal conduct.

The purpose of this pact is to maintain that a degree from the Richards College of Business at the University of West Georgia is held in high regard by all internal and external constituents, and that a degree from the University of West Georgia is as meaningful in the future as it is today.

I have reviewed the information in this syllabus, and I agree to abide by the policies stated. I will conduct myself in accordance with the RCOB Wolf Pact to protect the integrity of my degree and all those others who receive a degree from the Richards College.

COURSE INFORMATION

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

A nontechnical course of general application stressing personal financial planning, budgeting, savings, and investments, preparing taxes, making automobile and housing decisions, health and property insurance, and retirement planning.

EXPANDED DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

This course is primarily self-paced and examines personal financial problems and their feasible solutions. Budgeting techniques and savings are examined as a means of achieving financial independence. This course also covers the basics of tax preparation, credit management, insurance, investments, and retirement planning. Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to: construct a cash budget and use it to monitor and control spending; prepare a basic tax return using the appropriate tax forms and rate schedules; evaluate the benefits and costs of home ownership and estimate how much you can afford for a home; avoid credit problems; differentiate among the major types of health insurance plans; select the right homeowner's insurance and personal automobile policy; become familiar with the various measures of performance and use them in placing a value on securities; explain the eligibility requirements and benefits of the Social Security program; and, chose the right type of annuity for your retirement plan.

PREREQUISITES

- Prerequisite: none
- General Education (Core) Contribution: The course uses the writing skills developed in English courses, and mathematical methods and critical thinking acquired in mathematics courses.

DELIVERY METHODS

- This class is entirely online and has no required face-to-face attendance.
- Lecture and Problem Solving: Topics in personal financial management are presented in the textbook materials and/or lectures presented by the instructor and other presenters.
- Internet Materials: Various materials are available on the instructor's home page and the CourseDen course site.
- Outside Assignments: Students are required to complete a series of personal financial analysis exercises. CourseDen housed quizzes and exams must be completed.

COURSE POLICIES

ASSIGNMENT POLICIES

- Requests for quiz, exam, and assignment score adjustments must be made in writing (email is fine) within ONE WEEK of grade assignment.
- No makeup quizzes will be given unless offered to the entire class. If you miss a quiz you will receive a grade of zero on that quiz.
- If you miss an exam, you will receive a zero unless your reason for missing the exam is deemed valid by the instructor. You must contact your instructor regarding your excuse for missing an exam within one week of the closing time of the exam or you will receive a zero on the exam.
- There are no makeups for the financial planning exercises. If you miss an exercise, you will receive a grade of zero for that assignment. Any issues, technical or otherwise, concerning the financial planning exercises must be addressed no later than the day before the deadline for completion. You should keep in mind the communication policy for this course. Once the deadline has passed, any unattempted assignment will result in a grade of zero. You will not receive an extension and the assignment will not be reopened.
- You are responsible for knowledge of administrative announcements (test information, schedule changes, etc.) that are posted in CourseDen or sent to your official UWG email address.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

- Information regarding course grades will not be given over the telephone. Grades will be posted in CourseDen.
- Code of Conduct: Honesty and integrity are necessary to the academic and professional functions of business. Dishonesty undermines the foundation for the academic environment. Improper academic conduct shall be interpreted to mean the obtaining and using of information during an examination by means other than those permitted by the instructor, including supplying such information to other students. All forms of academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism, and falsification of academic records are subject to disciplinary action. Please read and adhere to the UWG Honor Code which is found here.
- Student Rights and Responsibilities: Common language for course syllabi review here. Documents at this link contain important information pertaining to your rights and responsibilities in this class. Because these statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change, you should review this information each semester.
- Campus Carry at UWG: Information concerning Georgia House Bill 280 may be found here.
- Credit Hour Policy (3 credit hours): Students in this class will spend around 150 minutes per week with faculty instruction (either face-to-face or online). Generally, students can expect to spend at least an additional 300 minutes per week beyond instruction. This additional work may include, but is not limited to readings, assignments, projects, group work, research, and test preparation.
- Learning Domains
 - Cognitive: Knowledge, Comprehension, Analysis, Synthesis, and Evaluation
 - Affective: Receiving, Responding, Valuing, Organization, and Characterization

ASSIGNMENTS

FINANCIAL PLANNING EXERCISES (20 POINTS EACH, 100 POINTS TOTAL)

Five financial planning exercises will be posted in CourseDen. The assignments will focus on application of the learned material. Each assignment will be worth 20 points. If completed by the due dates, you will receive full credit for your submissions or be told changes that need to be made for you to receive full credit.

EXAMS (100 POINTS EACH, 200 POINTS TOTAL)

Two exams, a midterm and a final, will be available in CourseDen. All exams are taken online. The midterm exam covers material from the beginning of the course until the midterm exam date. The final exam covers material starting after the midterm exam until the final exam date. Each exam will be worth 100 points. There are corresponding sample exams in CourseDen for both exams. Sample exams are provided as study aides. Sample exams can increase your exam scores, but cannot lower your scores. If your highest sample exam score is lower than your actual exam score, you keep your actual exam score. If your highest sample exam score is greater than your actual exam score, your adjusted exam score will be calculated as: Adjusted Exam score = $(0.25 * \text{sample exam score}) + (0.75 * \text{actual exam score})$.

QUIZZES (10 POINTS EACH, 100 POINTS TOTAL)

Twelve quizzes will be available in CourseDen. Each quiz will be worth 10 points. The two lowest of the twelve quiz scores are dropped. Each of the quizzes may be taken up to four times. The highest score for each quiz is retained for grading purposes. The quizzes change each time they are opened. Time limits are set at twice the time you are expected to need to complete the quizzes.

EXTRA CREDIT (2 POINTS)

The introduction discussion activity is worth two extra credit points.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Work submitted for credit in other courses will not be accepted for credit in this course. There is no extra credit in this course beyond that explicitly stated in the course syllabus or announced in class by the instructor. I reserve the right to “curve” grades; but any curve would only increase your score.
